

Writing Certificate: “Program Option D” Final Reflection Assignment

In addition to completing an extra writing course to serve as your capstone for the certificate, you are required to write a 4-5 page reflection that details your experience in our program. The reflection must show strong language skills and good transitions, be spellchecked and proofread, and address each of the following questions in full paragraph form:

- What course did you choose to count as your capstone and how did its assignments, exercises, and discussions impact your writing?
- What was your overall goal in pursuing the writing certificate?
- What were the biggest hurdles you faced during your time in our program, and how did you overcome them?
- In what ways do you feel your writing is most successful?
- What areas do you feel could still be improved?
- What have you learned about yourself as a writer while enrolled in our program?
- How has your experience in the writing certificate benefited you academically, creatively, and/or professionally?
- What specific classes, assignments, projects, instructors, events, and/or other aspects of the program benefited you the most?
